

Far from the Madding Crowd

Traditional cross-country skiing trip to explore further less crowded and therefore the more attractive x-country skiing resort. This time the borderland between Šumava and Český les. Because the snow conditions are bad so far the whole event is planned short for four days only, Saturday to Tuesday. The financial expenditures are suppressed down to minimum and shall not exceed 1.000,-CzK total. In accordance with the actual snow/ weather conditions the trip will be filled with x-country skiing, hiking, ice-skating, swimming, playing music, singing. We shall spend three nights in a tourist base in Postřekov by Klenčí pod Čerchovem. We need to use our own sleeping bags. Showers and a kitchen to prepare our own meal are available.

Registration together with handing in the attached slip filled in and 500,-CzK deposit, by Friday, February 15th in the PE office.

Departure: Saturday, Feb. 23rd, 9:16, Praha hl. n. railway station

Return: Tuesday, Feb. 26th, 14:45, Praha hl. n. railway station

I wish that my son/daughter takes part in the FMD 08 trip as suggested above.
